Central Library Announces Schedule for Free Winter/Spring Concert Series Hausmann String Quartet Will Open the Season on January 23.

SAN DIEGO – The 2011 Winter/Spring Concert Series of the City of San Diego Public Library will begin Saturday, January 23, 2011 with a performance by the Hausmann String Quartet, the 2010-2012 Joseph Fisch/Joyce Axelrod Resident String Quartet at San Diego State University. The FREE program will be held at 2:30 p.m. in the third floor auditorium of Central Library, 820 E St., in downtown San Diego.

On March 6, 2011 flutist Adrienne Nims and pianist Sheldon Rosenbaum will perform a recital of classical music by Poulenc, Vivaldi, and Bolling, as well as newly composed music for special types of flutes. Oboist/bassoonist Scott Paulson and pianist Angelica Eclar will present a special family radio show about an ugly duckling who becomes a beautiful swan, featuring classical and ragtime music. To end the season on April 3, 2011, Quatracelli! will perform a program of classical and popular music for four cellos. See the full schedule below for more details.

The Library began its Chamber Music Series in the mid-1950s. Critical and popular response encouraged the Library to increase the scope of the series into its present status of a Fall Concert Series and a Winter/Spring Concert Series. These series are made possible by the Friends of Central Library, the San Diego Public Library matching fund program, and public and private donations.

The concerts are very important to the musicians because they provide a venue for them to perform locally. The community has responded enthusiastically as well, as shown by steadily growing attendance by musicians, music lovers, music appreciation students and San Diego residents. In 2010 alone, almost 1,400 people attended the concert series.
